

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 194

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 26, 1999

Received and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the contributions of 4-H Clubs and their members to voluntary community service.

Whereas the American people have a tradition of philanthropy and volunteerism;

Whereas 4-H Clubs, an organization originally established by the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture and land-grant colleges, provide young people in the United States with the opportunity to actively participate in volunteer services in their communities that can bridge the differences that separate people and help solve social problems;

Whereas there are more than 6,500,000 youth members of 4-H Clubs in the United States;

Whereas 4-H members touch and enhance the lives of others during the annual National 4-H Week and throughout the year by doing good, by giving where there is a need, by rebuilding what has been torn down, by teaching where there is a desire to learn, and by inspiring those who have lost hope;

Whereas 4-H Clubs and their members, as well as other volunteers and Cooperative Extension staff, have joined to promote the week of October 3 through 9, 1999, as a opportunity for national, collaborated voluntary community service; and

Whereas voluntary community service is an investment in the future all Americans must share: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That the Congress commends and recognizes
 3 4-H Clubs and their members in the United States for 4 their contributions to voluntary community service.

Passed the House of Representatives October 25, 1999.

Attest:

JEFF TRANDAHL,
Clerk.
